0.125% (1 in 801 cfs) of all police calls for service (cfs) result in a use of force – In 2016, officers had to use force on 105 individuals in every 35 calls that resulted in an arrest.
0.149% (1 in 671 cfs) of all police calls for service (cfs) resulted in a use of force — in 2017, officers had to use force on 131 individuals.

1 in every 27 calls that resulted in an arrest.
0.125% (1 in 808 cfs) of all police calls for service (cfs) result in a use of force – In 2018, officers had to use force on 99 individuals.

1 in every 32 calls that result in an arrest.